LEARNING AND DECISION MAKING RESOURCES

The Consortium includes research and high education institutions from 6 Countries engaged in research activities and development projects for improving the quality of teaching and career guidance services. They have also great experience in supporting transitions from education to work and cooperation with enterprises.

The initiative is promoted by the University of Camerino (UniCam - IT), Centro Studi Pluriversum (IT), Cukurova University of Adana (TR), Institute of Entrepreneurship Development (EL), CASCAiD (UK), DEP Insitute (ES)

This project will have a wide and transversal impact on the daily working procedures of career guidance services (within education, high education, adult education system, as well as within the VET system and Employment services and international mobility services) for addressing a increasing demand of CMS from all citizens in a lifelong guidance perspective. The consortium will focus this project on the wide and transversal need of development of information, learning and guidance resources to improve Career Management Skills (CMS) within schools, employment services and learning centers, career guidance offices of Universities and of adult education organisations.
